- To assist the pastors when called upon with proclaiming the Gospel of our Lord in its truth and purity and administering the Sacraments;
- As your call provides the opportunity, to instruct and train the students in your charge diligently and faithfully in harmony and in accord with the Word of God as revealed in the canonical books of the Old and the New Testament and professed in the confessional writings of the Lutheran Church as contained in the Book of Concord of 1580;
- To promote spiritual growth by assisting us in a vibrant ministry to and by all generations of our church family, noting especially the primary role of parents in faith nurture (Deut. 6:4-9); and
- To perform other duties as mutually agreed upon, including those more specifically detailed in a job description for this position.

Should the Lord in his grace and mercy lead you to accept this Call, we obligate ourselves:
